Gillette, Wyoming Resident to Receive Toastmasters Communication and Leadership Achievement Award

Denver, Colorado, USA, April 19, 2019—Judith (Judy) Crow, Special Education High Needs Paraprofessional at Campbell County School District in Gillette, Wyoming, will be honored by District 26 Toastmasters serving Colorado, Wyoming and Western Nebraska for her achievement in the fields of Communication and Leadership. The event will be held on May 4, 2019 at 12:00 PM at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel, Denver Tech Center, 7801 E Orchard Rd, Greenwood Village, CO 80111 in Denver, Colorado.

Working for decades as an educator, Judy spent the last 11 years in the field of Special Education and is presently a para-educator at Campbell County High School and at Thunder Basin High School in Gillette, Wyoming. She prepares Special-Needs Students to meet every day “real life circumstances” and to learn how to face and overcome challenges. Her job also includes taking Special Education Students to job sites, and she’s been responsible for students when participating and functioning in classroom activities.

“Judy is an educator who believes in volunteering and giving back to her community,” says John Gutierrez, member of Energy Capital Toastmasters Club in Gillette. “She constantly uses her voice to advocate for others in different situations and under different circumstances.”

The District 26 Toastmasters Communication and Leadership Achievement Award is presented annually to a non-Toastmasters member, someone outside a Toastmasters club, either in the community or an organization, who is a distinguished individual in the fields of communication or leadership.
