District 26 Toastmasters to host a Foothills Division “Virtual Network with Toastmasters” and Open Networking event with two Toastmaster guest speakers
Event is free to the public

(Denver, Co, USA, 1 October 2020)–District 26 Toastmasters (www.d26toastmasters.org) invites you to its open networking to meet members, learn about Toastmasters in your area and watch two special guest speakers of District 26 Toastmasters to talk about communication and leadership.

Toastmasters provides a supportive and positive environment where members have the opportunity to develop their communication and leadership skills.

The event will start with Open Networking, then each speaker will present for 30 minutes on their topic of choice related to communication and leadership. After hearing from the two guest speakers, members and guests will have the opportunity to talk to other clubs and areas within the Southern division as well as possible other areas of the district.
